

"Satan's Beatitudes"

Blessed are those who are too tired, too busy, too distracted to spend an hour once a week with their fellow Christians-are my best workers.

Blessed are those Christians who wait to be asked, and expect to be thanked-I can use them.

Blessed are the touchy. With a bit of luck they may stop going to church-they are my missionaries.

Blessed are the troublemakers-they shall be called my children.

Blessed are the complainers-I'm all ears to them.

Blessed are they who are bored with the pastor's mannerisms and mistakes-for they get nothing out of his sermons.

Blessed is the church member who expects to be invited to his own church-for he is part of the problem instead of the solution.

Blessed are they who gossip-for they shall cause strife and divisions that please me.

Blessed are they who are easily offended-for they will soon get angry and quit.

Blessed are they who do not give their tithes & offering to carry on God's work-for they are my helpers.

Blessed is he who professes to love God, but hates his brother and sister-for he shall be with me forever.

Blessed are you when you hear this and think it is about other people and not yourself-I've got you.
